MOTION TO WITHDRAW

Christopher E. Martin, as attorney for Plaintiff United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”), respectfully requests to withdraw as counsel for the SEC in above-captioned case:

1. Mr. Martin has been reassigned to work on different matters on behalf of the SEC and a new counsel for the SEC, James P. McDonald, has made a Motion to Permit Appearance of Government Attorney. See Docket Number 44.

2. In addition, to Mr. McDonald, attorney Ian J. Kellogg will remain as counsel for the SEC.

3. No parties will be prejudiced by the request herein and there will be no delay caused.

WHEREFORE, Mr. Martin requests that the Court allow him to withdraw as an attorney of record in this case. A proposed Order is included herewith.
